National Coordinator

The National Coordinator for Inclusive Church is Ruth Wilde. Ruth is a Quaker who lives in Birmingham.

The National Coordinator works to support the Trustees[1] of Inclusive Church.

Some of the key tasks of the National Coordinator include:

- Visiting and speaking to local churches and groups

- Helping to organise and deliver Inclusive Church events, such as the annual Disability Conference and the Inclusive Church Lecture & AGM.

- Ensuring that Inclusive Church has a strong presence at events such as Greenbelt Festival and church gatherings.

- Training and resourcing churches and theregional ambassadors.[2]

- Admin, social media, newsletter, website updating.

Ruth is only part-time but is helped in these tasks by a group of volunteers, including the regional ambassadors.

If you would like to make contact with the National Coordinator directly, please emailoffice@inclusive-church.org[3]
